QUOTES FOR DAY 100 SPEECH

Opening:

“100 days ago, I made you a promise: evidence-based governance, community partnership, and results you can see. Today, I’m here to show you how we’re keeping that promise.”

On Progress:

“Three mini police substations under construction. One wellness center serving families. Co-responder teams changing how we respond to crisis. This isn’t a plan anymore – it’s Louisville’s new reality.”

On Community:

“We’ve held over 100 community meetings. We’ve listened to 15,000 voices through participatory budgeting. This isn’t my administration – it’s ours.”

On Next Steps:

“We’ve proven we can govern. We’ve shown we keep our word. Now we build on this foundation for the next 1,360 days. Louisville, we’re just getting started.”

Closing:

“100 days of action. 3 years and 265 days to go. Let’s keep building the Louisville we all deserve.”

FINAL THOUGHTS

The first 100 days are about establishing credibility and momentum. Success means:

- ☐ Keeping promises – Budget approved, construction begun
- ☐ Building trust – Transparent, accessible, accountable
- ☐ Showing competence – On time, on budget, professional
- ☐ Creating partnerships – LMPD, unions, community, healthcare

□ Maintaining focus – Evidence-based, not political

The first 100 days don't complete the transformation – they prove it's possible.
